[To all examinees residing outside of Japan (About Student visa)]

If you reside outside of Japan and do not have qualifications to reside in Japan, it is necessary to obtain a “Student” visa at the Embassy of Japan or Consulate General of Japan in your country in order for you to enroll in the Tokyo University of Science. When applying for a visa, the screening process will be smoother if you first obtain a “Certificate of Eligibility (CoE)” from the Ministry of Justice’s Tokyo Regional Immigration Services Bureau and use this CoE to apply for a “Student” visa.

If obtaining a “Certificate of Eligibility (CoE)”, it is necessary to submit documents for the CoE application within the enrollment procedure period. Make sure to read “Application for Issuance Certificate of Eligibility” on the International Students Entrance Exam page of the Tokyo University of Science website, check details regarding the procedure, and submit your application by the deadline.

*For residents residing outside of Japan, it is necessary to apply for issuance of a visa at the Embassy of Japan or Consulate General of Japan in your country once you obtain the “Certificate of Eligibility (CoE)”. Please note that, in principle, once you enter with a “Temporary Visitor” status that is deemed for sightseeing, etc., you cannot change your status of residence to “Student” while you are still in Japan.

Precautions when implementing screening

1. Precautions related to infectious diseases for which suspension of attendance is specified in School Health and Safety Act
On the day of the entrance examination, those who have contracted an infectious disease for which suspension of attendance is specified in the School Health and Safety Act (novel coronavirus, influenza, measles, chickenpox, etc.) and who have not recovered are requested, in principle, to refrain from taking the examination as there is a risk of the disease spreading to other examinees, supervisors, etc.
However, this does not apply to cases where acknowledged by a school physician or other physician that there is no risk of infection based on the condition of the disease.
Even in cases where examinees are requested to refrain from taking the examination due to the above reason, the examination fee will not be refunded. Please take sufficient precautions in managing your health on the day of the exam.
2. If there are any important announcements regarding the Entrance Examination due to transportation disruptions, etc., they will be made on the University's website (<https://www.tus.ac.jp>). In the event that the University deems it difficult to conduct the entrance examination as scheduled due to significant delays in public transportation, etc., the University may take measures such as moving the start time of the examination, postponing the examination, or changing the venue of the examination.
TUS will not bear any responsibility for any disadvantages to examinees resulting from the above.
