If you reside outside of Japan and do not have qualifications to reside in Japan, it is necessary to obtain a "Student" visa at the Embassy of Japan or Consulate General of Japan in your country in order for you to enroll in the Tokyo University of Science.

When applying for a visa, the screening process will be smoother if you first obtain a "Certificate of Eligibility (CoE)" from the Ministry of Justice's Tokyo Regional Immigration Services Bureau and use this CoE to apply for a "Student" visa.

If obtaining a "Certificate of Eligibility (CoE)", it is necessary to submit documents for the CoE application within the enrollment procedure period. Make sure to read "Application for Issuance of Certificate of Eligibility" on the International Students Entrance Exam page of the Tokyo University of Science website, check details regarding the procedure, and submit your application by the deadline.

*For residents residing outside of Japan, it is necessary to apply for issuance of a visa at the Embassy of Japan or Consulate General of Japan in your country once you obtain the "Certificate of Eligibility (CoE)". It is not possible to switch from a "Temporary Visitor" visa to "Student" once you arrive in Japan.

(Points to remember regarding Security Export Control)

The Tokyo University of Science practices education and research that emphasizes "science based on conscience", with the objectives of continued development of the Earth and prosperity of humankind and the world in our Research Charter. The Act targets regulations regarding the export of goods and provision of technology related to development of weapons of mass destruction, etc.; however, research contents applicable to the regulations may include cases where
